

Anti-racist leadership

These leadership and management resources support leaders and supervisors to open up and sustain conversations about equity, diversity and inclusion in all aspects of adults' social care.

Read

Short read: Why intersectionality is vital to anti-discriminatory practice: Views \(2025\)

Short read: Anti-racist social work in practice: Views \(2025\)

Short read: Exploring identity and race in social work: A journey through oral histories: Views \(2024\)

Short read: Diaspora dialogues: Celebrating the contributions of overseas social workers: Views \(2024\)

Longer read: Anti-racist systems leadership to address systemic racism: Strategic Briefing \(2024\)

Listen

2x 50 minutes: Anti-racist systems leadership: Podcast series \(2025\)

Watch

90 minutes: Black, Asian and minority ethnic leadership matters webinar \(2021\)

Tools

Equity: Change Project resources \(2024\) – a hub of resources designed to support the use of intersectionality to explore the practices, attitudes and actions needed to overcome barriers, challenge oppression and increase equity. Resources developed for those working in adults' services, but the learning is transferable.

Reflect

Reflect on and record your CPD using the button on each resource page. You can also bookmark and share resources with colleagues. Log and review your reflections in 'Your CPD.'

For more resources, explore the leadership and management topic page and our equality and diversity topic page.